

Commonwealth of Kentucky
Kentucky Department of Corrections

For Immediate Release

Contact: Mike Caudill
502-782-2345 (office)
502-229-5638 (cell)

Webb Strang Promoted to Deputy Warden at Luther Lockett Correctional Complex

Frankfort, Ky. (Sept. 16, 2015) - Kentucky Department of Corrections Commissioner LaDonna H. Thompson today announced the promotion of Webb Strang to deputy warden at Luther Lockett Correctional Complex (LLCC) in LaGrange. Webb assumes his new duties today.

"I am excited for Webb Strang to take over as deputy warden," said Thompson. "His wealth of knowledge will serve him well in this position. I look forward to the leadership and experience he will bring to Luther Lockett Correctional Complex."

Strang began his career with the Department of Corrections in 2005 as a correctional officer at the Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women (KCIW). He served as a classification and treatment officer and a unit administrator I at KCIW. In 2010 Webb was promoted to unit administrator II and transferred to the Kentucky State Reformatory (KSR) where he oversaw operations in general population, special management, and the Corrections Psychiatric Treatment Unit (CPTU).

Since November 2014 Strang has been special detailed to the position of security program administrator with the Office of Adult Institutions. Additionally, Strang served on Corrections Emergency Response Teams (CERT) in varying capacities throughout his career and he was a correctional officer with the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

"I am very excited to have Webb Strang as part of our staff," said Warden Merv Haddix. "Strang has held various positions throughout his career and will bring valuable experience to our team at Luther Lockett."

Strang holds degrees from Centre College and the University of Louisville, and is a Certified Protection Professional and Certified Emergency Manager.

Editor's note: Photo attached

###